Dear fellow BU alumni association,

First, it's our great pleasure to have you here attending the "BU Meets China: An Alumni Celebration and Global Investment Forum", a gala celebration of the launch of the Boston University Alumni Association of China (BUAAC) and the first-ever worldwide business and networking forum held for the entire BU alumni community.

We BUAAC people have been working on the preparation for couple of months to make it a fabulous event with huge success. To make it more influential in the BU alumni community, especially in Asia area, your participation and generous contribution is highly appreciated. On this front, we would be very grateful to your sponsorship, no matter what the amount is, to cover portion of the whole event, which is budgeted to be US$70,000.

We're looking forward to meeting you all in January in Beijing!!

Yours sincerely,

Hugo Shong
